A cool spring day in the month of May and our seasonal return to Tuckahoe Lake. Turtles were few but we did hear a Warbler or two and an Owl. The water was high and we were able to navigate further upstream than in past visits. The gps said 4.32 miles by the time we arrived back at the landing. Some stayed to camp and picnic while others had burgers and beer at Dave's in Ridgely. We'll have to come back and see the turtles.
